1. Declarations

Disembarking passengers are required to make an oral declaration of all goods which they are carrying or which are in their baggage and to complete this form in respect of any such goods which are liable to duty. Members of a family residing in one household and travelling together may make a single declaration.

Duty Free Allowances

These include:—

- (a) Alcoholic beverages not exceeding one quart of spirits and one quart of wine (adults only).
- (b) Tobacco not exceeding one pound in weight or 200 cigarettes or 50 cigars (adults only).
- (c) Any other articles up to a limit of value of $100, except that where the passenger is a returning resident returning after an absence of one year or more, the limit of value is $500.

3. Prohibited and restricted goods

The importation of certain goods is prohibited or restricted by law. Failure to declare such goods to the Customs officers may involve seizure and liability to penalties. Such goods include fruit or other plant materials, animals, birds, drugs, firearms and indecent or obscene articles.

4. Warning

Any person who makes an oral or written declaration which is false or incorrect is liable to penalties and the goods concerned may be forfeited.
